Attendance at the seminars is mandatory!

Each student should prepare 1 seminar topic and present it at the seminar.

Classes in gynecology internship contain 100 hours and are held over 2 weeks, which includes the post-class exam period (preliminary period). Teaching consists of seminars and exercises. Students are required to actively participate in classes from seminars and exercises, where knowledge will be evaluated and continuously checked.

Exam is taken after positive evaluation of class attendance and participations, and consists of practical (examination of patients with interpretation) and an oral part. Evaluation is descriptively.
