

Orientation to the National Health Service Course 2021

Designed and delivered virtually by British doctors working within the NHS for International Medical Graduates pursuing a career in the UK

Introduction to the NHS

On call duties

Responsibilities of a junior Doctor

Emergencies

Detailed explanation of life in a U.K hospital

Different stages of training

Common clinical scenarios

Morning

8am - 12.30pm (UK time)

1. Welcome to the NHS

- ✓ Primary secondary and tertiary care model
- ✓ Speciality referrals in the U.K
- ✓ Emergency medicine and admissions

3. Equipment and materials

- ✓ Ward structure and staff
- ✓ Available services
- ✓ Equipment used in hospitals

2. Career in the UK

- ✓ Foundation and Speciality training / Residency
- ✓ How to apply for speciality / residency?
- ✓ CV and Portfolio

4. A day on the ward

- ✓ Day to day ward duties
- ✓ Documentation
- ✓ Discharge summaries

Afternoon

1pm - 6pm (UK time)

5. On-call days

- ✓ Handovers
- ✓ Clerking / admissions
- ✓ Medical emergencies / Arrest Calls

7. Clinical scenarios

- ✓ A to E assessment
- ✓ Common presentations to hospital / ward
- ✓ NEWS score and Arrest calls

6. On-call nights

- ✓ Hospital at night
- ✓ Out of hours services
- ✓ Overnight emergencies

8. Immigration and finance

- ✓ Visas
- ✓ GMC registration / revalidation and appraisals
- ✓ Salary / cost of living and taxation

SPEAKERS

Dr Ben Stone
Course Coordinator

Consultant in Infectious Diseases
Department of infections and diseases,
Royal Hallamshire Hospital,
Sheffield U.K

Dr Laura Sandwell-Taylor

Radiology Trainee
East Midlands Deanery

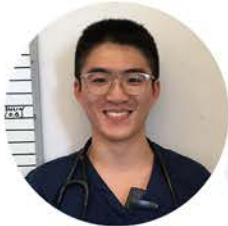

Dr Hameed Rehman

Gastroenterology Registrar
Royal Derby Hospital,
Lincoln U.K

Dr Ali Saiepour

Ophthalmology SHO
Scunthorpe general hospital,
Scunthorpe U.K

Dr Jeffery Tsang

Renal Medicine FY2
Royal Derby Hospital,
Derby U.K

Dr Sarmad Aslam

Emergency medicine Registrar
Lincoln county Hospital,
Lincoln U.K

Dr Devyani Bhatt

Radiology Trainee
University hospitals Coventry
and Warwickshire U.K